
Espírito Santo Investment Bank charity trading day raises over £400,000

Espírito Santo Investment Bank's charity trading day held on the 17th November has raised more than £400,000 for the Execution Charitable Trust. The sum brings the total amount raised for the trust to more than £10 million over 10 years.

The money raised will be used to support a range of initiatives to help the disadvantaged in the UK and abroad. The charities supported include, for example, Absolute Return for Kids (ARK), which has been the recipient of £3 million from the trust over the 10 years. This year's trading day is the first to include commission raised from Espírito Santo's overseas offices in Portugal, Spain, Brazil and Poland.

Nick Finegold, Executive Vice Chairman and co-CEO commented, "We are very pleased that the trading day has once again raised a considerable amount of money for the Execution Charitable Trust. The trust specifically targets poverty and social exclusion and this year prime recipients will be Myeloma UK and Help a Capital Child, and further recipients will include Cabrini, The Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity, Cardboard Citizens and Missing People. We would like to thank our clients for continuing to support this event."
